2. Gas bottles and butane cylinders

What happens with gas bottles?

Gas bottles are permitted on board provided they are turned off and fixed to your vehicle (fixed via a bracket or compartment).

All loose gas bottles not fixed to your vehicle or items such as butane cylinder canisters or gas bottles used for camping stoves must be declared at check-in, where they will be placed on a trolley for the voyage. You will be issued with a receipt, which must be handed in on arrival when collecting the gas bottle.

Gas bottles do not have to be emptied, but must be turned OFF at all times.

3. Jerry Cans and Fuel

Can I travel with my jerry can or fuel?

Jerry cans and generators must be empty and are not allowed to have any fuel in them. They are only permitted to travel if they are empty, the lid is off, and they have been air dried.

If jerry cans are found to have fuel, passengers will be asked to dispose of the excess fuel in the hazard chemical cage.

Generators which are fixed to a vehicle are permitted to travel with fuel.

For further information relating to the carriage of hazardous liquids, including cleaning spirits, please refer to the Carriage of Dangerous Goods Policy at spiritoftasmania.com.au/faqs or call the Customer Contact Centre on 13 20 10 for advice.

4. Alcohol

Can I take alcohol on board?

Passengers are permitted to carry alcohol on board Spirit of Tasmania, however the consumption of any such alcohol on board the vessel is strictly prohibited. Please refer to clause 30 (b) (ii) of the Terms and Conditions of Carriage which states:

"Medicines, boxed matches, toiletries and alcoholic beverages may also be carried on to the vessel by passengers. No passenger, however, shall be permitted to consume any such alcohol on board the vessel."

During check-in, security personnel will enquire with passengers whether they are travelling with any alcoholic beverages and if so reconfirm the condition of carriage associated to this item.

5. Food Items and Quarantine

What can I bring into Tasmania?

The following items are permitted*:

- Dried nuts
 - Processed foods including dried, cooked and canned fruit, vegetables, and honey
 - Freeze dried camping foods
 - Meat for human/personal consumption including salami, hams, and meat sticks
 - Canned fish
 - Tanned skins and hides (all including antlers and horns)
